	CLASSIFICATION CONTIDEN		25X
SOLINITISENT OF	Sernany (Soviet Zone)	REPORT N	25X
C. C.	Military Information from Doeberitz
W. W. and and an arrangement	новыем не замотельно вой обще от можене неучение от настана, со нем вынет в от потрабов. В от дель выго на поли	uakua, dakenderia, ettiorian kiris aukompusi iterus turakariptiist, a parametri Yen'ti Printizi isi ili ili ili	The Theorem
	wee below PLACE OBTAINED.	AND AND CONTRACTOR AND CONTRACTOR AND CONTRACTOR AND AND AND CONTRACTOR AND CONTR	25X
	NTENT 4 to 17 July 1951	ANGEL COMMUNICATIONS INCREMENTATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE STATE OF TH	25X
	2574	6 August 1951	natra navantificnati
DATE OBTAIN	SED	O 2007-1470 2.773.	eren nicken da
REFERENCES			ar. ir koristi
	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)		agu sugugupan
REMARKS		LNEWOL GUPY	ger in Elemen
	D	O NOT CIRCULATE	to captify the
X1
SCHOOL SELECT SHOW WENDOW VEHICLES	《大学·阿尔克·尔·阿尔·伊克·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·阿尔·	Ludge pressure une average production of all the control of section degrees and the control of t	ar i scandona -
X1
l.	On the morning of 4 July 1951, four artillery type were loaded at the Dallgow-Doeberitz rai	pieces of a hitherto unobserved Troad station. They had solid wheels with pneumatic tires, a protective shi	eld bulging forward, no muzzle brake, a split-tail carriage whose cross-sect to 180-mm. The guns had arrived from the nort	h gate of Altes Lager, were
	by soldiers who were red-bordered black epaul	ets with artillery insignia.	25X
	•
X1	Six other trucks loaded with the artillery pi	eces	25X
X1 2	*	eces	25X
2.	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 48 low wooden barracks, including 1 of the camp had been occupied by personnel wh with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personnel the second an officer training course of	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, no wore red-bordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two
	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The h8 low wooden barracks, including 1 of the camp had been occupied by personnel wh with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personal the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and C River. A German loading worker stated that two	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12. O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the bonnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kacerne as among the local population brossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture
2。 X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 48 low wooden barracks, including 1 of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumor said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned to in the hutment were discharged. 	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12. O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black spaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kacerne is among the local population crossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees
2°. X1 3°.	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 48 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personal the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and CRiver. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned to in the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12. O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black spaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne is among the local population brossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still
2。 X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 48 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personal the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and CRiver. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned to in the hutment were discharged. 	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12. O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black spaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne is among the local population brossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without
2.0 X1 3.0 X1 3.0	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 48 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel wh with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personnel who with the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that the and coal followed the three aforementioned the in the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, no wore red-tordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kacerne is among the local population drossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops
2. X1 3. 5X1 5X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumor said that the trains left for Neuruppin and CRiver. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned to in the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz airfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black equalets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loeven Kaserne es among the local population drossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder we more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on e noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must
2. X1 3. X1 5X1 5X1 4.	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned train the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz sirfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne as among the local population drossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on a noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must lery and tank components of which	25X
2. X1 3. iX1 5X1 4. iX1 5X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned train the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz sirfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield. Comment. have belonged to the 1st Gds Nerz Div, artill are carried in Altes Lager. Heavy artillery in November 1950.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, to wore red-tordered black equalets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loeven Kaserne es among the local population drossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder we more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in The Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on e noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must lery and tank components of which pieces were also observed there
2.0 X1 3.6 5X1 4.0 XX1 4.0	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including to the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumor said that the trains left for Neuruppin and CRiver. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned to in the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz airfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield. Comment. have belonged to the 1st Gds Merz Div, artillare carried in Altes Lager. Heavy artillery in the service of th	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, no wore red-tordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne is among the local population crossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in the Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on a noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must lery and tank components of which pieces were also observed there However, it	25X 25X
2. X1 3. iX1 5X1 4. iX1 5X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned train the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz sirfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield. Comment. have belonged to the 1st Gds Nerz Div, artill are carried in Altes Lager. Heavy artillery in November 1950.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, no wore red-bordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne is among the local population crossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in the Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on a noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must be artillery and tank components of which pieces were also observed there However, it	25X 25X
2. X1 3. iX1 5X1 4. iX1 5X1	Troops began to leave the hutment in the Olym July. The 18 low wooden barracks, including I of the camp had been occupied by personnel when with tank insignia. Two courses of instruction first having been a course for enlisted personand the second an officer training course of groups were loaded on three trains on a spur dwring the night of 12, 13 and 16 July. Rumon said that the trains left for Neuruppin and River. A German loading worker stated that two and coal followed the three aforementioned train the hutment were discharged.  Soviet officers that the Olympisches Dorf-Elstal would be transferred occupied by 17 July. An undetermined number of muzzle brakes were seen there. A German locks in the Panzer Kaserne would also leave. The tank troops at Doeberitz sirfield-Elstal the morning of 7 July. After sirens blew, the heard from the airfield. Comment. have belonged to the 1st Gds Nerz Div, artill are carried in Altes Lager. Heavy artillery in November 1950.	mpisches Dorf-Elstal area on 12 O supply and classroom buildings, no wore red-tordered black epaulets on had been conducted there, the onnel of undetermined strength allegedly 700 trainees. The two track near the Loewen Kaserne is among the local population crossen (0 53/W 00) on the Oder wo more trains with furniture rains. All 120 German employees tank battalion stationed in the Parzer Kaserne was still of T-34 tanks with and without smith said that the tank troops were alerted several times on a noise of many tank motors was the artillery pieces must lery and tank components of which pieces were also observed there However, it	25)

æ'	Approved For Belease 2004/01/28 : CIA-RDP82-00457R008500020009-1	25X1
-	2	25X1
25X1 25X1	is believed that with regard to the size because guns of the size are not organically assigned to the division artillery. Comment. The transfer of the officer training courses to Wuensdorf was previously reported, with the last shipment pertaining to this movement having been observed on 12 July 1951.	··

CONFIDE 25X1